

Thanks:

First, thanks go to the Old Art Building here in Leland. They allowed Jim Redmond to host a weekly, year round jam session since Fall of 2017. It was there that he met the members of the band. A special thank you to Chip Freeman and SuSuSounds. This music would not exist in recorded form without him.

Jim Redmond says special thanks go to Dan Lisuk, Bill McCrory, Greg McMorrow, John Erickson, Gary Lamberg, Sara Hartley and Lance Huffer. Additional thanks go to fellow musicians; Barry Segal, Darrell Oliphant, Chris LeGolvin, Ed Contreras, Alex Epstein, Chip Atkison, Neil Haverstick, Larry Leisge, Wayne Yaffee, John Hornick, Zane Gabler, Chuck Clawson, Hans Christian, Dick Bowzer, Kedrik Merwin, Kurt Childs, Michael Lardie, Ed Arlin and Steve Lindo. Personal thanks must go to Jeanne Creighton, Lesley Redmond, John Lee, Mighty Mouse, Southern Comfort and Sirius Outlaw Country. Lastly to my heros; Eric Clapton, John Hiatt, Bob Dylan, Paul Simon, Leo Kottke, Leslie West, Nguyễn Lê, Dave Beegle, The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, The Doors, The Grateful Dead and many others.

Dan Lisuk gives big props to brother Steve Lisuk, music deep diver, who gave him this wonderful '67 Vox Country Western and inspired him to turn onto music; Laurie is my rock and my truth mirror, always supportive, always dependable; Cindy, Dave, my best interpreters of the "now" scene- so cool; Mike Edington, my very first jam partner- big thanks, bro; to Jim Redmond- this opportunity is beyond any plans I had. Dig.

Bill McCrory gives thanks to Mark Blank for loaning his "Bronco" bass for 8 years. Special thanks to Greg for being an approximist in music and life.

Greg McMorrow would like to thank Bill McCrory, Dan Lisuk and Jim Redmond.

John Erickson would like to thank Duane Allman & Todd Snyder.
